Campaign's slogans :

Our rights are our properties; they are not given by anybody

You are the revolution, and the revolution is about your rights

Rights can never be lost, as long as somebody is claiming them

Document it; let your voice be heard

All who have violated my rights, will be named: oppressors

No matter whom you are (Violators), my rights will remain intact.

Here below are chosen words of the publications that have been distributed by the local activists:

Document it, for the sake of a better tomorrow, for the sake of your children.

Documenting is not made for the sake of international organizations, or for foreigners .

Documentation is made to preserve the rights for those who have scarified their lives, souls and properties .

Documentation is made to save their memories (The memory of Martyrs) , and to save all that they have given for the country, and to reward their sacrifices by sustaining a better future, and to take care of their loved ones.

Documentation is made to prevent any further injustice from taking place, and to stop any further killing, detention and torture.

Documentation is made to stop those who mimics regime's atrocities and actions of injustice in the name of revolution, stop right there, my rights and my dignity are the revolution .

Documentation is made, so we can all become partners in saving our rights and dignity against a savage regime, or even against any one that takes after him .
