City of Irbin, Damascus Suburbs Governorate

"We were sleeping in the coordination office like all people in the quite city when we were awakened by the sounds of the Mig fighters raiding Aljawaza avenue that caused a big explosion, while I was looking for my camera to take photos of the wrecked area another airstrike targeted Assagha street after less than three minutes so we went to photo the second raid and missed the first one because the it targeted was away.

I published the news at 07:15 am on the Facebook page of Irbin coordination:

Minutes later, the members of the medical group contacted me to inform me about the martyrs to publish their photos on the net on the legal office and the coordination page and we informed the human rights activists.

We pray for the martyrs and their mothers to recover soon."
